TEACHING EXPERIENCE

LSE (UK) Graduate Teaching Assistant, *Digital Technology, Speed, and Culture

2020/21 Class-teaching in Digital Technology, Speed, and Culture, an elective half-unit module for 2019/20 undergraduate students in the Department of Sociology. The course explores sociologically 2018/19 informed approaches to the study of science and technology. Content taught included: the politics of artefacts; post-industrial society, time, and space; feminist technoscience; digital technologies and the reshaping of social relations; self-tracking as a sociotechnical practice.
Course convened by Professor Judy Wajcman.

LSE (UK) Graduate Teaching Assistant and Dissertation Officer, *Dissertation Study Skills

2018/19 Workshop leader in Dissertation Study Skills, a drop-in workshop series taught to MSc students from the Department of Media and Communications. Comprised of six independent workshops delivered three times each, the module was designed to offer support to students in planning and writing their dissertations, as well as in structuring essays and preparing for exams.
Content taught included: critical reading; essay structure; choosing a research topic; developing a research question; research design and operationalization. Moreover, during the Summer, I worked as a Dissertation Officer, meeting students individually to discuss and advise them on the writing up stage of their dissertations. Course convened by Dr Omar Al-Ghazzi.

LSE (UK) Classroom Assistant, *Mediated Feminisms

2019 Assistantship on the half-unit module Mediated Feminisms, taught to MSc students from the Departments of Media and Communications and Gender. Tasks included leading one-hour long practice-based classes on media production for two seminar groups. Course convened by Professor Sarah Banet-Weiser.

LSE (UK) Classroom Assistant, *Interpersonal Mediated Communication

2019 Assistantship on Interpersonal Mediated Communications, a half-unit module taught to MSc students. The role comprised activities such as content management, support in the creation and implementation of an electronic media diary, Moodle editing, and wiki moderation. Course convened by Professor Ellen Helsper.

LSE (UK) Classroom Assistant, *Digital Platforms and Media Infrastructures

2018 Assistantship on the course Digital Platforms and Media Infrastructures: Societal Issues, taught to MSc students during Lent Term. The tasks involved facilitating group exercises, the creation and management of a course blog, and publishing weekly blog entries with materials submitted by the students. Course convened by Dr Jean-Christophe Plantin.

Unisinos Guest Lecture, *Languages of the Internet

(BRA) Guest lecturer on Languages of the Internet – emoticons, emoji, animated GIFs and digital 2016 memes – for a group of graduate students of the programme of Digital Communication and Social Networks, University of Vale do Rio dos Sinos (BRA). Convened by Prof. Adriana Amaral.

UFRGS Teaching Practice Internship, *Interface Design
(BRA) Planning and delivery of lectures for one academic semester on the course of Interface Design 2014 for undergraduate students of advertising, as part of the required curriculum of the Master's program. Content taught included: introduction to mobile interfaces; user experience; affordances; usability tests. Course convened by Professor Alex Primo.
